

Inauguration of Good Shepherd Centenary School

Date: 14.06.2024: Chennai

The inauguration of our new Good Shepherd Centenary School was a vibrant and joyful occasion, marking a significant milestone in our journey. This momentous event was graced by our beloved Sr. Joan Lopez, the Congregational Leader, along with her council, Sr. Pushpa Louis, the Province Leader, and her council. We were also honoured by the presence of Sr. Aruna George, the Correspondent, and Sr. Annie Thomas, the Principal.

This historic day strengthened our commitment to the mission of Jesus, the Good Shepherd, in Chennai. The presence of esteemed guests such as Rev. Fr. Xavier Arul Raj, Senior Advocate and Secretary of the Legal Cell of the Tamil Nadu Bishops' Council, and Dr. Alfred Deva prasad, CEO of Christ wood School, along with the Good Shepherd Sisters from various communities, further inspired us, filling us with strength and confidence.

The ceremony commenced with the unveiling of the theme, "Into New Morrows," followed by the traditional lighting of the lamp, a solemn prayer service, scripture readings, and melodious Good Shepherd hymns sung by our teachers and students.

Sr. Aruna George, the Correspondent, extended a warm and heartfelt welcome to the gathering, incorporating the auspicious Kumbha Aarthi, a symbol of spiritual perfection and divine blessings. The dignitaries then shared their prayers and blessings, invoking growth, success, and prosperity for this new educational endeavour.

The celebrations were made even more special by the performances of our talented students. The tiny tots of UKG and Grade I captivated the audience with an action song, while students of Grades II, III, and IV beautifully portrayed the values of Good Shepherd through a mesmerizing dance drama.

The program concluded on a heartfelt note, as we shared our love, joy, and appreciation for this new beginning. This inauguration not only marked the opening of a new school but also strengthened our commitment to education, faith, and service in the spirit of the Good Shepherd.

In all things,
give

Thanks
